

E-newsletter - September 2010

• Cinema naming competition (closes 6 Sept)

It's been The Alpha, The Poly, The Regent, The Capitol and The Odeon. The new name is up to you and if yours is the winning suggestion, you'll receive a fabulous prize. The winner and runners up will be announced at the next open day on Sunday 12 September. Enter online by 6pm on Mon 6 Sept.

• Heritage Open Days (9 to 12 Sept)

Enjoy free entry to a variety of historic local buildings along with walks, talks and special events. Highlights include the second cinema open day, Giant Monopoly, Roman Legion XIII and the Redbourn 900 celebrations. Download PDF brochure

• Win a meal for 4 (worth £100) at The Fishery Inn

Write a review of anything on our site during September and you'll be entered into our competition to win a meal for four, up to the value of £100, at the newly refurbished Fishery Inn in Boxmoor.

• Open Studios (11 Sep to 3 Oct) & The Big Project (19 & 20 Sep)

Meet local artists, photographers, ceramists and jewellers in their homes, studios and galleries during Open Studios. See creativity in action, buy original pieces and commission new work. Then visit the Old Town Hall for art, film, music, storytelling and crafts during The Big Project.

• Food and Drink Festival (1 to 10 Oct) - nominations open!

The third annual St Albans Food and Drink Festival brings special offers, demonstrations, tastings and events; starting with the Beer Festival and culminating in the Gala Dinner and Awards for our finest venues. Nominate your favourites by 7 Sep and then vote for the six finalists from 10 Sep.

Congratulations to 'Anspan' who won an adult seasonal membership to Butterfly World, for being our July reviewer of the month). Our reviewer of the month for August will win a pair of tickets to The Texas Tenors at The Alban Arena worth £39.

Keep up to date with all the comings, goings and doings in St Albans by joining us here:

