

E-newsletter - July 2010

• Cinema viewing (Sat 3 July, 12noon - 2pm)

James Hannaway is opening the doors of the derelict cinema to the public for the first time in 15 years. Come and see the state of the building and hear about plans for its refurbishment. You'll need old clothes, sensible shoes, a torch and some loose change (donations welcome). See you there!

• Festival of Life (Sun 4 July, 12noon - 4pm, St Peter's Street)

Win a meal at Lussmanns, family tickets to Butterfly World and Willows Farm Village, meet 'Woolly Willow' - and that's just at our stall! There'll be great prizes, face painting, a climbing wall and inflatable slide. All this and The Big Dance (see below). We'll be outside Holland & Barrett - come and say hello.

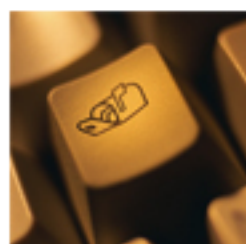

• The Big Dance (Sun 4 July, various times & locations)

Want to do something different? Try Ballroom, Hip Hop, Parkour and Capoeira, join Miss High Leg Kick on a tour of St Albans (and on the Abbey Flyer to Watford), watch local groups perform in The Big Dance Arena (St Peters Street) and then jive the evening away at the Old Town Hall. It's all free!

• Music in the Parks (Sun 4, 18 & 25 July, 1.30 - 5pm)

From folk to jazz, indie to blues and funk to rock - the soundtrack to your summer is here in St Albans. Enjoy the best bands from the local music scene in our lovely parks. Sun 4 and Sun 25 July - Verulamium Park, St Albans. Sun 18 Jul - Rothamsted Park, Harpenden. Full line up

• Plenty of play (with just a little bit of work)

We've been encouraging you to 'have more fun' since we launched in Nov 08. As life is all about balance, we've added a new work section to our site with useful links for job seekers and local entrepreneurs. It's still developing so let us know what else you'd like to see.

Congratulations to W Cooper who won tickets to see Caruso and The Quake at Trestle Arts Base and 'Karen', who won an adult seasonal membership to Butterfly World, for being our May reviewer of the month. There's one last chance to win this great prize during July!
