

E-newsletter - February 2010

We've discovered that February is all about snowdrops, candles, pancakes and purification. Let's not forget 'Kissing Friday' (19 Feb) when English schoolboys may kiss girls without fear of rejection or punishment. Good luck boys.

▪ Win a Valentine's Day meal for two at Lussmanns Fish & Grill

Lussmanns, champions of artisan food producers, are offering a free dinner for two*. Check out their new website and blog, then use their feedback form to answer this: how many varieties of apple (roughly) does Chegworth Valley Juices grow? There's lots more on our Valentine's Day page.

* Competition closes at midnight on 10 Feb. Winner, notified on 11 Feb, will receive dinner for two on Sun 14 Feb at 8.30pm (set Valentine's Day menu, drinks not included).

▪ Win tickets to see 'Room on the Broom' on 15 / 16 Feb

We're giving away a family ticket to see the stage adaptation of this popular children's story with songs, laughs and scary fun for ages 3 and up at the Alban Arena on Mon 15 Feb and Tue 16 Feb. Enter our competition by 10 Feb.

* Tickets (£10) are available online or from the Alban Arena on 01727 844488.

▪ Have fun during Spring half term \(Mon 15 to Fri 19 Feb\)

We've compiled a full list of events and activities for all ages and interests in and around St Albans (including the annual town centre pancake race) so there's no need to be bored during Spring half term. Details.

▪ Latest news on the restoration of The Alpha cinema

Contracts are due to exchange on 8 Feb and complete on 15 Feb. Over £100,000 has been received but more funds are required. Here's the latest news including a NEW five-year Advanced Booking List option for £2,000 (250 available - get them while you can). More information.

▪ ...and the winner is

Congratulations to K Liversidge, who won tickets for Jumping Mouse at Trestle Arts Base, B Mortimer, who is taking the family to see Joseph at The Alban Arena and 'pepsie' who was our December reviewer of the month.
