

E-newsletter - June 2010

This month's highlights

Summer half term

31 May - 4 June

Here's our guide to what's on in and around St Albans during half term (also National Family Week). Don't forget your 'kids go free' voucher for Butterfly World.

St Albans Festival

11 - 27 June

This year's St Albans Festival includes: Magna Carta Weekend, the Festival Pilgrimage, Larks in the Parks and St Albans Alive. See the full programme \(pdf\).

Buy tickets online

We're very happy to say that we're now selling tickets for events at Trestle Arts Base and The Sandpit Theatre. Here's a taster of what's on in June:

- Caruso and the Quake 3 Jun - Trestle Arts Base

Win 2 tickets in our competition (closes 30 May)

Beautiful storytelling and live opera singing reveal the heart behind the legend of the famous tenor who escaped from the Great San Francisco Earthquake of 1906.

- The Liberty Tree 13 Jun - Trestle Arts Base

Two of Britain's finest songwriters, Leon Rosselson and Robb Johnson interweave the writings of Thomas Paine with key events from his extraordinary life.

- High School Musical 2 On Stage! 18 & 19 Jun - Sandpit Theatre

Troy, Gabriella, Taylor and Chad all land summer jobs at an exclusive country club but it's not going to be an easy ride as Ryan and Sharpay are vacationing there too...

- The Lamplighter's Lament 24 Jun - Trestle Arts Base

One man searches the shadows for a daughter he lost at sea. Three performers use puppetry, music and visual theatre to tell a story of very few words for anyone who has loved and lost.

- Velocity - 28 & 29 Jun - Sandpit Theatre

Bigger and better than before and featuring a range of dance performances from Sandringham and community performers. Be prepared to feel the force of Velocity 2010.

And the winner is... Congratulations to 'Cranford' (who won fish and chips for two at Lussmanns for being our April reviewer of the month), and to Rebecca, Emma, Caroline and Saffron; the winners in our Jo Banks Competition.

Keep up to date with all the comings, goings and doings in St Albans by joining us here:

